

REV 2020 – Call for Special Session Papers

February 26th – 28th, 2020, University of Georgia (Athens, GA, USA)

17th International Conference on Remote Engineering and Virtual Instrumentation:
Cross Reality and Data Science in Engineering

Special Session:
'IEEE Std. 1876 - 2019 on Networked Smart Learning
Objects for Online Laboratories –
Laboratory Design and Implementations, Use Cases and Security Concerns' (NSLOOL'20)

Special Session Topics of Interest

- IEEE Std. 1876 - 2019 Compliance
- IEEE Std. 1876 - 2019 Use Cases
- Online Laboratories Design and Implementations
- Security of Online Laboratories
- Successful adoption of Online Laboratories

In this Special Session we are expecting papers or demos of use case design and implementations and integrations within Virtual Learning Environments that are fully or partially compliant with IEEE Std. 1876 - 2019 on "Networked Smart Learning Objects for Online Laboratories". These contributions will provide more insights for future improvements during the newly approved standard life cycle.

Participants will also have the opportunity to present and discuss about issues related to Secured and Trusted Learning Systems.

Special Session Chairs

- Dr. Hamadou Saliah-Hassane, Université TÉLUQ, Canada (Chair)
- Dr. Luis Felipe Zapata-Rivera, Florida, Atlantic University, USA (Co-Chair)
